Our Christmas Gift Service is an opportunity to give to people who will get very few presents this Christmas. ‘After 18’ work with young asylum seekers in Leicester, Women’s Aid care for abused women, and the Community of Grace/One Roof Leicester work together to provide support for a wide range of vulnerable and homeless people. Please bring unwrapped presents so they can be directed to appropriate people. We are asking for donations of Christmas goodies (biscuits, chocolates) and little festive items such as hats, scarves, fluffy socks, toiletries. Thanks for anything you can donate.

BISHOP STREET ON THE INTERNET

The morning services are videoed each week, and posted on Youtube. They are 'unlisted' videos, so will not appear on searches or on the channel, but the link each week can all be found at

ART IN THE CHAPEL: Personal Totems. Join artist in residence, photographer and writer Jacqui Booth, to share an object that holds meaning for you. The first thing you think of is probably the best. It doesn't have to be valuable or beautiful – though it may be so to you! It's basically show and tell for all ages. I look forward to chatting to you and taking a photo of you and your chosen object. Tues 6th Dec 10am-1pm and Thurs 9th Dec 11am-2pm in the Chapel. Follow the stories on www.jacqui-booth.co.uk/blog. Photos and writing may be used online and be part of an exhibition/possible publication in early 2023. Supported by Art in the Chapel and public funding by Arts Council England

Religions for Peace UK Women of Faith Network

Mug Request: South Wigston have started a coffee morning/warm space for parents of the pre-school that meets on the premises. Some parents are bringing their younger toddlers and we want to avoid any accidents caused by hot spillages - hence a request for spare/unwanted thermos flask/cups. (What is needed is re-usable-café-mug-style items, with sealable lids, as shown in the photo.) If anyone is willing to part company with such a cup, please contact Liam to find a good opportunity for collecting them (liam.dacre-davis@methodist.org.uk).
