LENT PREACHING SERIES: The first three Sundays in Lent will be a mini-series based around Jesus's statement, ' You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind.” This is the greatest and first commandment. And a second is like it: “You shall love your neighbour as yourself.” ‘

Clive Marsh, 26th Feb – What does it mean to Love God?

Sincere Makunde, 5th Mar – What does it mean to Love our neighbour?

Liam Dacre-Davis, 12th Mar – What does it mean to Love ourselves?

On 26th March, Passion Sunday, our local arrangement service will feature a collective activity to make a giant painting of Gauguin’s ‘Garden of Gethsemane’. This will then feature in our Good Friday 11.00am morning service.

LIVING LENT HOPEFULLY – 2023 Lent Course:

This Lent, I invite anyone and everyone to join me as I follow the Living Lent Hopefully course, prepared by The Queen’s Foundation training college, Birmingham.

It all begins with an initial online event hosted by The Queen’s Foundation, on Monday 27th February 7.30-9.00, followed by five Thursday study sessions. There is an individual £8 charge, but free tickets are also available.

You can register here: <https://queens.jotform.com/230054349764963>

You can choose the option ‘I am already part of a group’, so we can gather in our own 30min Zoom meeting afterwards where we will share our initial thoughts and explore some questions.

If you are unavailable to attend the introduction event, you are still more than welcome to join the subsequent 5-week course, also online, on Thursdays between 2nd and 30th March. Each session will include an audio recording and study notes provided by The Queen’s Foundation. If you would like to participate, or want further information, please let me know by emailing liam.dacre-davis@methodist.org.uk

Remember to tell me whether you will be attending the initial online event, the 5-week course, or both. I can then send you all the relevant Zoom info.

GOOD FRIDAY: We are developing our plans for two events on Good Friday, 7th April 2023. Our plan is to hold the annual Good Friday service at 11.00am, when we will be joined by members from various Leicester

Methodist Churches. At 1.00pm a reflective event featuring the University of Leicester String Quartet will be taking place, with a performance of Haydn's 'Seven Last Words', interleaved with readings. Look out for more details.

ART CLUB VOLUNTEER REQUEST by AFTER18

Could you spare a few hours a week to share your skills with After18 and enrich the life of a young person? After18 is a Leicester-based charity working to support young refugees and asylum seekers to transition from childhood to adulthood and prepare for their future. We do so by providing specialist information, emotional and practical support and a wide range of educational and social activities.

One of our activities is a weekly art and photography club, and we are currently looking for a volunteer to join this group and interact with the young people as they work on their projects each week. This would be a great opportunity for someone who is passionate about creative arts and supporting the wellbeing of young people.

*Must be available Mondays 5:30-7pm in Leicester City Centre
