DAILY ADVENT REFLECTIONS - An invitation from Revd Kim:
Dear God's beloved,
As we begin to look towards the season of Advent, I would like to invite you to consider joining us on a special journey as we prepare our hearts and lives for the coming of the Christ Child anew. This year, we are offering the opportunity to receive a short daily Advent devotion via WhatsApp, sent out each morning throughout Advent. Each devotion will offer a thought, a reflection, or a little encouragement to carry with us into the day. In the busyness of life, it can be so easy to rush towards Christmas without pausing to reflect on the deeper meaning of this season. These daily moments will give us an opportunity to slow down, make space for God, and prepare ourselves afresh for the coming of Christ.

My hope is that, by sharing these devotions, we can journey through Advent together as a community of faith, even as we go about our different daily lives. If you would like to take part, please sign up by completing a consent form available at Church / Church Office, giving permission for the daily devotions to be sent to you via WhatsApp.

May this Advent be a time of renewed hope, quiet reflection, and joyful expectation as we prepare to welcome Emmanuel, God with us.
Shalom. Kim

JUST ONE NAME: On Remembrance Sunday we were hearing about those killed in 1916 at the Battle of the Somme, and Alison gave us the story of William Kingsley Callard, a Sunday School teacher and local preacher at Bishop Street, killed aged 19, by a shell on the first day of the battle. When BBC Radio Four's 'Broadcasting House' programme asked listeners to research a name from a war memorial in their local context, Alison wrote to them about William. They asked her to record a short description which they broadcast as one of three of the names they had received, last Sunday morning. If you want to hear Alison's item (in which she slips in several mentions of Bishop Street Church!) you can find it about 22 minutes into the program, available at https://www.bbc.co.uk/sounds/play/m00349lt .

CHRISTMAS GIFT SUNDAY: On Advent Sunday, 30th November, we will be receiving items to give to people who may get very little this Christmas. We will be sharing via the Women's Refuge and the Community of Grace, (and perhaps the successor work to After 18 - support for young adult asylum seekers – as yet unconfirmed).

Ben at Community of Grace gives useful guidance for all of these, as he says, "With our current work and the joint work with One Roof our basic food / clothing are met. What would be appreciated is nice chocolates, savoury treats, deodorant sets. Something that says 'You are loved / cared for', more than just an essential item".

Please bring unwrapped non-perishable presents on Gift Sunday or early in December so they can be directed to appropriate people. Thanks for anything you can donate.

We will also have a 'Christmas Postbox' to share cards with other Church members, available from December, alongside an opportunity to send a 'collective card' to everyone at Church.
