NEW PRAYER HANDBOOK - 'Our Story, Our Song': First of September is the start of the 'Methodist Year', and the 2025-26 Methodist Prayer Handbook is available, free to Bishop Street members and friends. It has a double page of prayers for use on each day of the month, and each page focusses on a region of the world, a District within Britain and a facet of Methodist life and work. There is also a year-round Bible-reading scheme offering a framework for daily bible readings. The handbooks are now available to take this Sunday. Please sign the list when you collect yours, so we can see who still needs a copy.

HARVEST FESTIVAL 2025 and Gifts for those in need - 28th September
This annual celebration of the bounty and beauty of creation will be led by our own minister, Rev'd Liam Dacre-Davis.

Our partner, the Zinthia Trust will be receiving gifts our Harvest gifts to share with those they work with. Zinthia has asked for donations of dry rations such as pasta, pasta sauce, rice, tinned food (vegetables and fruits), tea and sugar. If you are able to buy one or more of these items over the next few weeks, that would be much appreciated. Please bring them on Harvest Festival Sunday so that we can share the joy of this season with those who need support.

Bring and Share Harvest Lunch: This year, Harvest Worship will be followed by an early lunch together. Bring and share - please bring a contribution to our lunch if you are able and stay and catch a bite together on this day of celebration.
